Attending:
Secretary's Report: The minutes from last meeting in January 2012 was accepted and passed.
Treasurer's Report: gave a budget report, it was accepted and passed.
Alternate DR Report: read Concept One, discussion followed. Thank you read very informative.
Webmaster: reported that she had been having some technical difficulties over the last 2-3 weeks but thinks they have been resolved and is ready to make all Al-Anon, Alateen updates. We should receive something weekly and any input would be appreciated. Thanks Gratitude Dinner Report: gave an updated report on our wonderful event. Great speakers great food, wonderful raffle and beautiful decorations. A profit of $686.94 was made for the District. Set up a boutique area and it was awsome, making the District a profit of $338.13. Thank you have the dinner was attended by family as well as Al-Anon members, it is such a joy to see the family recovery. Solid proof that IT WORKS !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Picnic: This event is still open, no group has stepped up to spear-head this even and it is so important: it is these events that keep our District alive and well. It can be anytime, any where and if you have a better idea for an event that would work as well. Again, please contacts with your offer.

Alatten Conference: This years conference will be held July 13, 14, & 15, 2012 and will be held at Lake Placid Convention Center in Lake Placid. This years theme is "Games". The will have meetings in the morning, swimming in the afternoon, and bon-fires in the evening. Word of mouth from last years conference has generated a lot of interest and to date 6 teens are committed with 3 sponsors and they are expecting more hoping to double that number, (last year it was 6). Contributions from all groups are needed as it costs $130.00 per teen. Staying with Tradition 7 the teens are looking for craft ideas and projects to help them raise money so if you have any ideas please contact Also, at the district we will be passing a envelope ear marked for the conference.

announcement at their meetings.
Step In The Right Direction: Attendance runs between 8-12 and they have designated the 3rd meeting of the month as a Step meeting.
Ft.Ogden Snowbirds: Very small, sometimes only her but she feels the need to keep the doors open. Support from other groups would be helpful and appreciated. Newcomers Venice: Attendance runs between 15-20. If any group has newcomers let them know about this meeting as it has more time for talk and is not as strict allowing questions and answers to the newcomer.

AISL: opened with reports from the chairperson.
- Alateen: Thanked everyone for all the donations for Alateen. Also reported that we lost a very active and loved Al-Anon member she was also a Alateen Sponsor, Some of the Alateen Sponsors attended the wake and her home group members set up a fund in her name with a $141.00 contribution to the Alateen Kids go to Camp fund. What a wonderful tribute and will be missed.
Calander: will be sending out weekly emails. If you aren't getting yours please let know.
Public Informations reported that for the first time a display was put up at the AA Old Public Information: reported that for the first time a display was put up at the AA Old Timers Dinner, it was a great display and very well received. This will probably be a ongoing thing. Also, put up a great display at the Al-Anon Gratitude Dinner, very nice and Thank you.
Inter-Group Liaison: was absent but let know she had given the AA Intergroup office pamphlets to distribute but we still need to put some of our books there for sale. Check with your group and see if any are available.
